THIEF CAUGHT LOOTING FLATS EMPTIED BY FIRE

Enters By Escapes as Police Drive Out Tenants at Avenue D Blaze.

One of the few thieves ever caught cobbing apartments temporarily vacated at a fire was captured early to-day through Chief Kenlon, during a blaze in the four-story loft building at No. 127 Avenue D.

About fifty families in adjoining buildings were driven to the atreets by the police. When the danger of the flames' spreading was over, Isafor Garay, who lives on the second floor of No. 175 Avenue D, asked Thief Kenlon to let him go back and ock his door. The Chief consented. As Garay went up the shars he saw
